

Find a Part-time or Summer Job on Campus

Starting points at Queen's University

Some jobs are posted and the options included on this page and the next will help you strategize. Some jobs are not posted, so you will need to be proactive. Suggestions for reaching out are provided below.

CHECK job postings in MyCareer (careers.queensu.ca)

- Log in into MyCareer. Select “Postings” and then “All Job Postings.” View all or filter by type and geographical area.
- Check often - employers sometimes post frequently and have short timelines
- New students have access the day after enrolling in at least one course

TUNE IN to campus

- Read local and campus news, e.g., the Journal Queen's News Centre, AMS, International Centre, Gazette, and other publications (online, print or other distribution channels).
- Check bulletin boards on campus within departments and general areas (e.g., JDUC, ARC, Mackintosh-Corry Hall)
- Look for articles about upcoming events and consider attending
- Be alert for possible opportunities (e.g., recent grants awarded to departments or professors)

CONTACT campus employers directly and professionally

- If you go in person, dress neatly and smile; if you telephone, prepare a brief script
- Identify yourself clearly, saying your first and last name
- Let them know that you are interested in working
- Record the name and contact information of the hiring coordinator
- Inquire about their hiring procedures (check first—these are often on their website)
- Find out about the nature of the work
- Express positive interest in some aspect of the work they describe
- Thank contacts for their help and follow-up

COMMUNICATE THE FIT between you and an opportunity

- Develop your application
- Check MyCareer (careers.queensu.ca) for ways to get help writing your resumes, cover letters and interviews
- Participate in workshops at Career Services (Skills/Get Experience, Resume, Cover Letter, and Interview)
- Book a 1-to-1 appointment with a Career Services Peer to review your resume and cover letter
- Strategize and problem-solve with the help of Career Services (e.g., Drop-In Career Advising Mon—Thu 1:30—3:30 PM)

SUBMIT your application

- Address employers' requirements; follow their procedures
- Follow-up to check on the progress of your application
