Why GRADUATE STUDIES in ENGLISH?

The English Department at Queen’s University is a professionally-oriented research department whose faculty members are distinguished by both scholarly prowess and teaching excellence. The Master of Philosophy program is unique among Ontario Universities and features intensive field-specific study, broad coursework, a Publishing Practicum, and guaranteed entry into the Queen’s English Doctoral Program upon successful completion of MPhil degree requirements. This program will be of particular interest to undergraduate students considering doctoral research.

Why QUEEN’S?

The graduate programs in English at Queen’s are among the oldest and most prestigious in the country, combining commitment to historical breadth with promotion of methodological and disciplinary innovation. The department’s vibrant intellectual community is developed and sustained by the synergies between the knowledge and passion of our distinguished faculty and the ideas and inspirations of our outstanding graduate students.

Our Master’s students consistently demonstrate high rates of success in national awards competitions, in achieving entry into doctoral programs, and in securing employment in fields as varied as editing, publishing, teaching, law, civil service, business, NGO work, and information technologies.

English MPhil Map

GETTING STARTED

- Start with key priorities like determining a course pattern that builds on your passions while covering your historical requirements.
- Consider how your courses might prepare you for eventual doctoral work or other educational and career goals beyond the MPhil.
- Find your way through the academic process with help from departmental and Expanding Horizons professional development workshops, the department Grad Chair and the SGS website.

MAXIMIZE RESEARCH IMPACT

- Start to think about the audiences for your research.
- If you will be continuing graduate studies, apply for SSHRC and OGS funding.
- Consider positions in student services, the SOPS, or media outlets like the Queen’s Journal, CFCR, and the SSG Blog. Look in the AMS Clubs Directory for more ideas.
- Serve on departmental, faculty or university committees. Talk to the Graduate English Society for tips on getting involved.
- Check out professional development workshops from Expanding Horizons.

BUILD SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

- Explore how you can connect with your community through experiential opportunities on- and off-campus.
- Consider whether you wish to take the “Literary Internship” as one of your courses in the Fall term.
- Consider volunteering with different community organizations, such as Literacy Kingston and Kingston WritersFest.

ENGAGE WITH YOUR COMMUNITY

- Finding a career that fits starts with knowing yourself. Get help by taking a Career Services workshop or meeting with a career counselor. Check out books like So What Are You Going to Do With That? or The Academic Job Search from the Career Resource Area for advice on various career options.
- Start reading publications like University Affairs and the Chronicle of Higher Education. Browse non-academic labour market websites. Stay on the lookout for special events like Graduate Student Career Week to explore your career pathways.
- Check admission test deadlines if needed for further studies.

INTERMEDIATE STAGE

- Continue your coursework, being alert to final essays that might be revised into publishable papers.
- Read for and complete field exams.
- Secure your Publishing Practicum placement.
- Start keeping an ePortfolio of your skills, experiences and competencies.
- Use a Research Assistant or Teaching Assistant position to develop your research or teaching skills.
- Consider publication options for your research.
- Attend or present at a graduate conference.
- Consider participating in the 3 Minute Thesis (3MT) competition.

WRAPPING UP

- Complete your coursework, field exams, and Publishing Practicum.
- Consider publication options for your research.
- Attend a major conference in your field, such as the The Annual Meeting of the Canadian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies or the Modern Language Association Convention.
- Consider putting an article in The Conversation.
- Practice articulating the skills you have been developing in settings outside the university, such as casual conversation, networking, and interviews. Get help from a Career Services workshop.
- Investigate placements from MITACS and other sources.
- Do some targeted networking with people working in careers of interest, through Queen’s Connects on LinkedIn, the Queen’s Alumni Association, professional associations, and at conferences. Get help from a Career Services workshop.
- Secure your Publishing Practicum placement.
- Consider joining professional associations like the ACCUTE, the Modern Language Association and more.
