

Primary Health Care Nurse Practitioner (PHCNP) Diploma

Why a PHCNP DIPLOMA?

The School of Nursing at Queen's offers a challenging and innovative PHCNP Diploma program to prepare graduates with the knowledge and skills to provide advanced nursing care to individuals and families in primary care settings.

The PHCNP Diploma program is offered full-time over 1-year or part-time over 2 years and prepares nurses who already have a Master's degree for advanced practice in primary health care nursing.

In collaboration with a consortium of nine Ontario universities, students are taught primarily through small in-person graduate seminars, clinical placements, and self-directed learning online. Students engage in a critical examination of research, with application of their knowledge and skills related to pathophysiology, health assessment, diagnostics, therapeutics, and the primary health care nurse practitioner role. Upon successfully completing the program, graduates are eligible to apply for the Canadian family/all ages nurse practitioner licensure examination.

CLINICAL Placements

Clinical placements for the program can only be arranged by our Clinical Placement Coordinator and students must complete their placements in the geographic area of the home university site. Our catchment area goes along the north shore of Lake Ontario from Peterborough to Smith Falls to Brockville. Clinical placements in the Queen's catchment site typically occur within Kingston and surrounding communities. Access to a vehicle is required as students are responsible for transportation to and from their clinical placements.
