The DAN School of Drama and Music offers a well-rounded program that includes acting, directing, music theatre, design, comedy, playwriting, theatre history, theory, education, community theatre, theatre technical production, puppetry, opera, and dance. Our program is designed to equip creative thinkers with communication, collaboration and leadership skills that will enable them to excel in any field they choose. A key part of Drama at Queen's is the enormous range and number of opportunities offered by many exciting productions, both on stage and backstage, as directors, writers, designers, or producers.

Top 5 Reasons to study Drama

1. Craft theatrical pieces by applying skills you'll learn in music, playwriting, acting, design, directing, and all levels of production work, on and off stage.

2. Study a balanced approach in which theory informs practice, and practice informs theory.

3. Position yourself among Queen's Drama grads, the top new innovators in Canada for Theatre and the Arts.

4. Study, rehearse, and perform in the highly acclaimed Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts situated on Lake Ontario.

5. Collaborate with top performers, instructors, directors, and production teams while participating in the abundance of unique performance and production opportunities.

Why study in Kingston?

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen's has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen's has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience.

The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen's – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.

Grads And Current Students’ Comments

“I got to see drama at work in a number of different capacities, so not only traditional acting or behind the scenes work in terms of production or technical, but actually administratively where you’re actually going to deal with education, how that interacts with theatre. When you get to see drama used in those different ways, you really realize that you know there is a whole world surrounding these things and a number of different opportunities.”

- Radissen Ramoutar

“I am super thankful for Queen's drama as I was not only able to grow my knowledge in theatre production, but also develop a keen interest in theatre research. This interest was greatly supported by faculty through research assistant work, supervision on a directed study, and numerous opportunities to present my research throughout Queen's. With the exceptional research support and expertise from faculty, I was able to establish key skills that I will carry with me into my master's work in the fall.”

- Bethany Shaufler-Biback

(Some of my favourite things about the DAN School is the camaraderie between all of the students, both in the Music department and the Drama department, and the new Music Theatre students as well. It was so nice to be able to mingle with all of the classes and explore different strengths we may not know that we had - in practical classes, or academic sides of it, and really getting to learn about niche interests, all with the help of our amazing professors.”

- Maysaa Alikhan

Get started thinking about the future now – where do you want to go after your degree? Having tentative goals (like careers or grad school) while working through your degree can help with short-term decisions about courses and experiences, but also help you keep motivated for success.
