The DAN School of Drama and Music offers a well-rounded program that includes acting, directing, music theatre, design, comedy, playwriting, theatre history, theory, education, community theatre, theatre technical production, puppetry, opera, and dance. Our program is designed to equip creative thinkers with communication, collaboration and leadership skills that will enable them to excel in any field they choose. A key part of Drama at Queen’s is the enormous range and number of opportunities offered by many exciting productions, both on stage and backstage, as directors, writers, designers or producers.

Alumni Story

“I loved the well-rounded degree experience I received at Queen’s: playwriting classes, theatre literature classes, directing classes, technical theatre classes, and, most importantly, my acting classes, all of which provided me with a strong base and an understanding of theatre and drama.”

-Amy Ciupak Lalonde, BAH ’98

Alumni Profiles

Ashlie Corcoran: Currently the Artistic Director of Western Canada’s largest theatre company (The Arts Club in Vancouver), Ashlie has directed work across Canada at theatres including the Centaur, Shaw Festival, Canadian Opera Company, Tarragon, and the Belfry as well as serving previously as Artistic Director of both the Thousand Islands Playhouse and Theatre Smash.

Kat Sandler: Actress, Artistic Director (Theatre Brouhaha), and award-winning playwright (2016 Dora for best new play Mustard), Kat’s powerful contemporary voice has been heard in many regional theatres across Canada, including in a stunning simultaneous double bill at Edmonton’s Citadel under the Artistic Direction of Queen’s Drama graduate, Daryl Cloran. Kat is teaching playwriting (DRAM 251) in 2021.

Why study in Kingston?

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen’s has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen’s has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen’s – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.
