

Media and Performance Production

Combining courses from Film and Media, along with Drama, Media and Performance Production is ideal for students interested in exploring both these fields and in drawing together the lessons to be learned in each. Every year, the program invites a director, writer, or other notable professional working in theatre, film or television to come to Kingston as our stage and screen visiting artist. Students have an opportunity to work with and take classes from this distinguished artist who, in addition to sharing experiences, also gives a presentation for a broader Queen's and Kingston audience.

TOP 5 REASONS to study STAGE AND SCREEN

- 1 Students gain a true understanding of the relationship between the arts in contemporary society.
- 2 We offer exchange opportunities to more than 100 schools in over 30 countries.
- 3 Our small program allows close interaction with professors and classmates.
- 4 Learn in our state-of-the-art facility the Isabel Bader Centre.
- 5 Students can apply to undertake a practical internship in media production, criticism or curatorship.

Alumni Story

"I loved my experience in Film and Media at Queen's. The professors, my fellow peers, and the unique course opportunities made for a fabulous undergraduate education."

Why study in Kingston?

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen's has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen's has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen's – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.
