Why study in Kingston?

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds—Queen’s has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen’s has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world—and it is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with international reputations, who have a variety of experiences and perspectives to share.

Art History

Our courses explore how visual and material cultures have shaped human societies across time and around the world. Course topics range from the scientific study of artists’ techniques to cultural heritage preservation, from Renaissance sculpture to Inuit printmaking, and from Baroque painting to Victorian textiles. Our students also have many opportunities for first-hand engagement with art and architecture outside the classroom.

ADDITIONAL REASONS TO STUDY ART HISTORY

- My art history graduate education at Queen’s provided me with excellent training as an art historian. I had the opportunity to study and work directly with historic drawings in the Queen’s Archives, and learn how to research and catalogue them while producing a finding aid for a newly acquired collection.”
  —Christine O’Malley Queen’s BA and MA

That is a degree from Queen’s.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS): MAJOR, MINOR

---

1ST YEAR

- In first year you will have the chance to explore the foundations of Art History along with some electives. Those considering a future in Art Conservation may want to take Chemistry and Biology as part of your first-year electives.
- Attend Majors Night in the Winter term to learn more about Plan options.

2ND YEAR

- Start going deeper into the discipline of Art History, while considering a minor and/or certificate such as Global Action and Engagement. Attend Degree in the Fall term to learn more about Certificates and internship options.
- Want to make sure your academics are where you want them to be? Visit SASS (Student Academic Support Services) and the Writing Centre for some feedback.

3RD YEAR

- A chance to start grouping courses in areas of interest, or to keep it more general and explore many areas of Art History. Meet with an Academic Advisor to make sure you are on track and have planned out your courses for next year.

4TH OR FINAL YEAR

- In fourth year you will have the chance to participate in research-based courses that can lead to Graduate School or to your future career path. Make sure to finish up all your courses for your major and your minor.

GET THE COURSES YOU NEED

- Join teams or clubs on campus such as Vogue Charity Fashion Show or Ultraviolet Magazine.
- See the AMS Clubs Directory or the Queen's Get Involved page for more ideas.

GET RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

- Volunteer at places like the Queen's Archives or the Union Gallery. Look into summer jobs by talking to the department or Career Services about work through SWEP or Work-Study. Consider entrepreneurial opportunities via programs like the Queen's Innovation Connector Summer Initiative IQC3.

---

GET CONNECTED WITH THE COMMUNITY

- Volunteer on or off campus with different community organizations, such as Best Buddies or Muse Magazine.
- Get involved with the Art History Departmental Student Council (DSC).
- Volunteer at the Agnes Etherington Art Centre, where student docents lead school programs, family programs, and assist with children's art classes.

GET THINKING GLOBALY

- Prepare for work or studies in a multi-cultural environment by taking QUIC's Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations.
- Speak to a QUIC advisor to get involved in their programs, events, and training opportunities.

GET READY FOR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

- Grappling with program decisions? Go to Majors Night or get some help considering career options from Career Services.
- Explore different careers of interest by reading books in the Career Services Information Area, such as Careers for Culture Lovers. For more information check out Career Cruising or by finding and connecting with alumni on LinkedIn.
- Start focusing on areas of interest. Research education requirements for careers of interest. If needed, prepare to take any required tests (like the GRE or LSAT) and get help thinking about Grad School from Career Services.

What will I learn?

- A degree in Art History can equip you with:
