Acting, directing, music theatre, design, playwriting, theatre technical production, puppets, opera, theatre history, dance. The Dan School of Drama and Music offers a well-rounded program designed to equip resourceful thinkers with the communication, collaborative and leadership skills that will enable them to excel in any field they choose. A key part of Drama at Queen’s is the enormous range and number of opportunities offered by many exciting productions, both on stage and backstage, as directors, writers, designers or producers.

“I loved the well-rounded degree experience I received at Queen’s: playwriting classes, theatre literature classes, directing classes, technical theatre classes, and, most importantly, my acting classes, all of which provided me with a strong base and an understanding of theatre and drama.”
- Amy Ciupak Lalonde, BAH ’98

Alumni PROFILES

Ashlie Corcoran: Currently the Artistic Director of Western Canada’s largest theatre company (The Arts Club in Vancouver), Ashlie has directed work across Canada at theatres including the Centaur, Shaw Festival, Canadian Opera Company, Tarragon, and the Belfry as well as serving previously as Artistic Director of both the Thousand Islands Playhouse and Theatre Smash.

Attend Degree + in the fall term to learn more about Certificates and Internship options. Want to make sure your academics are where you want them to be? Visit SASS (Student Academic Support Services) and the Writing Centre for some help.

GET RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Audition for the fall and winter Departmental Major Productions. Get involved with the Student Studio Series as an actor, technical crew member, assistant designer, or assistant stage manager. No experience necessary. See the AMS Clubs Directory or the Queen's Get Involved page for more ideas.

GET CONNECTED WITH THE COMMUNITY

Get involved with the Departmental Student Council (DSC) and many student run companies. Attend the Departmental Major Productions and the Student Studio Series. Go on a field trip to Thousand Islands Playhouse in Gananoque.

GET THINKING GLOBALY

Prepare for work or studies in a multi-cultural environment by taking QUIC's Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations. Speak to a QUIC advisor to get involved in their programs, events, and training opportunities.

GET READY FOR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

Grappling with program decisions? Go to Majors Night or get some help wondering about career options from Career Services. Make an appointment in February or March to meet with the Dan School Program Coordinator. Use lab peers, DRAM100 teaching assistants, and course instructors to help navigate the university experience.

3RD YEAR
A chance to start grouping courses in areas of interest, or to keep it more general and explore many areas of drama, music, music theatre, entrepreneurship. Meet with an Academic Advisor at the Dan School to make sure you are on track and have planned out your courses for next year. Study at the Shaw Festival as in immersion experience in the summer after 3rd year.

CONSIDER A 12-16 MONTH QUIP INTERNSHIP

Earn credit for an internship with a professional theatre company (DRAM or MUTH 395). Consider applying to do a 12-16 month QUIP internship between your third and fourth year. Apply to become a member of the The Barefoot Players.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Assess what experience you're lacking and fill in gaps with volunteering, clubs, or internships - check out the Career Services skills workshop for help.

4TH OR FINAL YEAR
In fourth year you will have the chance to participate in research-based courses that can lead to Graduate School or to your future career path. Make sure to finish up all your courses for your major and your optional minor and/or certificate(s).

What will I learn?
A degree in Drama can equip you with:
• Technical production and design skills
• Oral and written communication
• Resource and time management to manage multiple long-term projects
• Real world problem solving to focus on effective processes
• Critical thinking for comprehensive analysis of issues and ideas before coming to conclusions
• Creative thinking to connect, synthesize, and transform material to generate new forms and solutions
• Intercultural knowledge and competence to adapt empathetically to unfamiliar ways of being
• Logical reasoning to make judgments based on historical evidence
• Civic engagement to use theatre to make a positive difference in local communities
• Integrative learning to combine practical and theoretical knowledge and experiences

Where can I go?
A degree in Drama can take your career in many directions. Many students choose to continue their academic inquiry with a Master's. Our students are equipped with a strong foundation for careers in:
• Acting
• Arts administration
• Choreographer
• Development director
• Drama therapy
• Playwriting / screenwriting
• Stage management
• Talent representation
• Theatre production
• TV/Radio broadcasting

Taking time to explore career options, build experience and network can help you have a smooth transition to the world of work after graduation.

Research education requirements for careers of interest. If needed, prepare to take any required tests (like the LSAT or GMAT) and get help thinking about Grad School from Career Services. Observe a professional play development workshop when the department hosts the winners of the biennial Vanden Playwriting Competition.

Why study in Kingston?

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen's has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen's has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen's – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.

Why QUIP?

- Gain a year of career-related work experience.
- Build network connections.
- Receive support from Queen's staff in job search and during internship.
