What about FUNDING?

Master of English students receive minimum funding of $12,000 for the one-year program. Students are usually funded through a combination of internal fellowships, teaching assistantships, bursaries, and scholarships as part of the basic funding package.

Apply for external funding from OGSS, SSHRC and other sources. Queen's will automatically issue a one-time $5,000 award to incoming Masters students who have won federal government tri-council awards. For more information, see the School of Graduate Studies' awards and scholarships.

Why QUEEN’S?

The Master's and Doctoral programs in English at Queen's are among the oldest and most prestigious in the country, combining commitment to historical breadth with promotion of methodological and disciplinary innovation. The department's vibrant intellectual community is developed and sustained by the synergies between the knowledge and passion of our distinguished faculty and the ideas and inspirations of our outstanding graduate students.

Our Master's students consistently demonstrate high rates of success in national awards competitions, in achieving entry into doctoral programs, and in securing employment in fields as varied as editing, publishing, teaching, law, civil service, business, NGO work, and information technologies.

Why GRADUATE STUDIES in ENGLISH?

The English Department at Queen’s University is a professionally-oriented research department whose faculty members are distinguished by both scholarly prowess and teaching excellence. Students in the MA and the PhD programs take courses that involve a wide range of critical methodologies, historical periods, and literary genres; they also take a pedagogical and professional skills course that ranges from academic counselling to grant applications to mentoring undergraduate students.

We encourage you to identify an area of research interest and contact a potential supervisor before applying, should you be interested in the MA thesis option.

Visit the English Department website to read faculty profiles and learn more about faculty members' research areas. When you find a faculty member with similar research interests to yours, contact him/her and tell them about your interest in graduate work and related experience.

Program STRUCTURE

The 12-month Master of English is offered in 2 patterns:
- Pattern I: Course work. (Recommended standard for an M.A. in English.)
- Pattern II: Course work and thesis of approximately 15,000 words.
GETTING STARTED

- Start with key priorities like determining a course pattern that builds on your passions while covering your historical requirements.
- Consider how your courses might prepare you for eventual doctoral work or other educational and career goals beyond the MA.
- Find your way through the academic process with help from departmental and Expanding Horizons professional development workshops, the department Grad Chair and the SGS Habitat.

MAXIMIZE RESEARCH IMPACT

- Start to think about the audiences for your research.
- If you will be continuing graduate studies, apply for SSHRC and OGS funding.

BUILD SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

- Consider positions in student services, the SGPS or media outlets like the Queen’s Journal (CFRC) and the SGS Blog. Look in the AMS Clubs Directory for more ideas.
- Serve on departmental, faculty or university committees. Talk to the Graduate English Society for tips on getting involved.
- Check out professional development workshops from Expanding Horizons and the history department.

ENGAGE WITH YOUR COMMUNITY

- Explore how you can connect with your community through experiential opportunities on- and off-campus.
- Consider whether you wish to take the “Literary Internship” as one of your courses in the Fall term.
- Consider volunteering with different community organizations, such as Literacy Kingston, Kingston WritersFest and the history department.

LAUNCH YOUR CAREER

- Finding a career that fits starts with knowing yourself. Get help by taking a Career Services workshop or meeting with a career counsellor. Check out books like So What Are You Going to do With That? or The Academic Job Search from the Chronicle of Higher Education. Browse non-academic labour market websites: Stay on the lookout for special events like Graduate Student Career Week to explore your career pathways.
- Check admission test deadlines if needed for further studies.

INTERMEDIATE STAGE

- Continue your coursework, being alert to final essays that might be revised into publishable papers.
- For thesis-based MA students, produce the thesis proposal and initial research and writing for the thesis.

WRAPPING UP

- Complete your coursework.
- For thesis-based MA students, complete your thesis.
