When you study English at Queen's, you'll learn to read perceptively, analyze clearly, and above all, communicate effectively. Students will explore the literary canon, including writers such as Shakespeare, Austen, and Brontë, but will also engage with current text forms, such as graphic novels and works by contemporary writers. Queen's English encourages an eclectic approach to the subject, combining attention to methodology and core knowledge with the flexibility to support individual passions.

Top 5 Reasons to Study English

1. To learn to read and think more actively and creatively.
2. To develop your ability to write effectively and with greater clarity and precision.
3. To expose yourself to an exciting diversity of literary works written in English.
4. To build a vocabulary for responding critically and incisively to the written word.
5. To broaden your aptitudes in expressing complex ideas and formulating persuasive arguments.

English MAJOR MAP *

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS): MAJOR, MINOR

2019-2020

GET THE COURSES YOU NEED

1ST YEAR

In first year, you will have the chance to explore the foundations of English along with some electives.

Attend Majors Night in the Winter term to learn more about Plan options.

GET RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Get involved in student publications, such as the Queen’s Journal, MUSE, or Ultraviolet Magazine. Explore broadcasting opportunities at CFRC and QTV. If you are interested in creative writing courses, work on your portfolio.

See the AMS Clubs Directory or the Queen’s Get Involved page for more ideas.

GET CONNECTED WITH THE COMMUNITY

Volunteer on- or off-campus with different community organizations, such as Frontier College/Queen’s Students for Literacy or Kingston WritersFest.

GET THINKING GLOBALLY

Prepare for work or studies in a multicultural environment by taking QUIC’s Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations.

Speak to a QUIC advisor to get involved in their programs, events, and training opportunities.

GET READY FOR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

Grappling with program decisions? Go to Majors Night or get some help with career options from Career Services.

1ST YEAR

Delve more deeply into the discipline of English, while considering a minor and/or certificate such as International Studies. Attend Degree + in the Fall term to learn more about Certificates and Internship options.

Want to make sure your academics are where you want them to be? Visit SASS (Student Academic Support Services) and the Writing Centre for some help.

2ND YEAR

Look into summer jobs by talking to Career Services about work through 9WEF or Work-Study. Think about applying to positions in student services or the Alma Mater Society.

If interested, apply to work at an on-campus library or the Queen’s Learning Commons.

3RD YEAR

A chance to start grouping courses in areas of interest, or to keep it more general and explore many areas of English. Meet with an Academic Advisor to make sure you are on track and have planned out your courses for next year.

If interested, apply for an Undergraduate Student Summer Research Fellowship (USRF). Consider applying to do a 12-16 month QUIP internship between your third and fourth year. Consider entrepreneurial opportunities via programs like the Queen’s Innovation Connector Summer Initiative (QICSI).

4TH OR FINAL YEAR

In fourth year, you will have the chance to participate in seminar-sized courses that can lead to Graduate School or to your future career path. Make sure to finish up all your courses for your major and your optional minor and/or certificates.

Investigate requirements for full-time jobs or other opportunities related to careers of interest.

Assess what experience you’re lacking and fill in gaps with volunteering, clubs, or internships – check out the Career Services skills workshop for help.

Why study in Kingston?

For over 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen's has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen's has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen’s – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.
