PART-TIME OR SUMMER JOBS ON CAMPUS

Opportunities for employment at Queen’s University

In this tipsheet, you learn some strategies for finding job opportunities on campus. You’ll learn ways of identifying and reaching out to on campus job prospects, whether or not the opportunities are posted.

CHECK job postings in MyCareer (careers.queensu.ca)
- Log in into MyCareer
- Select “Postings” and then “All Job Postings.” View all or filter by type and geographical area
- Check often – employers sometimes post frequently and have short timelines
- New students have access the day after enrolling in at least one course
- Check out the Work Study Program and SWEP (Summer Work Experience Program)

WORK-STUDY Program
Part-time jobs throughout the year.
Open to full-time students with demonstrated financial need as assessed by Student Awards. Applications available online through Student Awards.

SWEP (Summer Work Experience Program)
Jobs at Queen’s University in the summer.
Open to returning full-time undergrads only.
Jobs posted by Career Services in early December; applications close mid-February.

TUNE IN to campus
- Read local and campus news (e.g., The Journal, AMS, International Centre, Gazette) and other publications
- Check bulletin boards on campus in departments and general areas (e.g., JDUC, ARC, Mackintosh-Corry Hall)
- Look for articles about upcoming events to attend
- Be alert for possible opportunities (e.g., recent grants awarded to departments or professors)

CONTACT campus employers directly and professionally
- If you go in person, dress neatly and smile; if you telephone, prepare a brief script
- Identify yourself clearly, saying your first and last name
- Let them know that you are interested in working
- Record the name and contact information of the hiring coordinator
- Inquire about their hiring procedures (check first—these are often on their website)
- Find out about the nature of the work
- Express positive interest in some aspect of the work they describe
- Thank contacts for their help and follow-up

COMMUNICATE THE FIT between you and an opportunity
- Check out our tipsheets on resumes, cover letters, networking and interviews
- Participate in workshops at Career Services (Resume, Cover Letter and Interviews)
- Book a 1-to-1 appointment with a Career Services Peer to review your resume and cover letter

SUBMIT your application
- Address employer requirements by following their procedures
- Follow-up to check on the progress of your application
