Acting, directing, music theatre, design, playwriting, theatre technical production, puppets, opera, theatre history, dance. The Dan School of Drama and Music offers a well-rounded program designed to equip resourceful thinkers with the communication, collaborative and leadership skills that will enable them to excel in any field they choose. A key part of Drama at Queen’s is the enormous range and number of opportunities offered by many exciting productions, both on stage and backstage, as directors, writers, designers or producers.

Alumni Profiles

Ashlie Corcoran: Currently the Artistic Director of Western Canada’s largest theatre company (The Arts Club in Vancouver), Ashlie has directed work across Canada at theatres including the Centaur, Shaw Festival, Canadian Opera Company, Tarragon, and the Belfry as well as serving previously as Artistic Director of both the Thousand Islands Playhouse and Theatre Smash.

Kat Sandler: Actress, Artistic Director (Theatre Brouhaha), and award-winning playwright (2016 Dora for best new play Mustard), Kat’s powerful contemporary voice has been heard in many regional theatres across Canada, including in a stunning simultaneous double bill at Edmonton’s Citadel under the Artistic Direction of Queen’s Drama graduate, Daryl Cloran.

Emma Hunter: Winner of a 2018 Canadian Screen Award for her work in the web series Save Me, Emma is well known for her starring roles in the television series The Beaverton and Mr. D (which also features Drama graduate Suresh John) as well as for her stand up comedy and feature film work.

Top 4 Reasons to Study Drama

1. Create new work with a combination of opportunities with music, playwriting, acting, design, directing and all levels of production work, on and off stage.

2. We emphasize a balanced approach in which theory informs practice, and practice informs theory.

3. Drama grads are the top new innovators in Canada for Theatre and the Arts.

4. In addition to Harrison-LeCaine Hall and Theological Hall on the main campus, students take classes, rehearse and perform in the highly acclaimed Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts situated on Lake Ontario.

Alumni Story

“I loved the well-rounded degree experience I received at Queen’s: playwriting classes, theatre literature classes, directing classes, technical theatre classes, and, most importantly, my acting classes, all of which provided me with a strong base and an understanding of theatre and drama.”

-Amy Ciupak Lalonde, BAH ’98

GET THE COURSES YOU NEED

In first year you’ll have the chance to explore the foundations of Drama in DRAM 100 or, at the Castle, in BISC 100 and 101 along with some electives.

Attend Majors Night in the Winter term to learn more about Plan options.

GET RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Audition for the fall and winter Departmental Major Productions. Get involved with the Student Studio Series as an actor, technical crew member, assistant designer, or assistant stage manager. No experience necessary.

Get credit for working on productions: build and paint sets, hang lights and help run the show in DRAM 246 and DRAM 247. Submit your original playscript for production in the Student Studio Series.

GET CONNECTED WITH THE COMMUNITY

Get involved with the DAN School Undergraduate Society and many student run companies.

Connect with professors at events or workshops hosted by the DAN School Undergraduate Society. Participate in Student Affairs’ Orientation Week show Exister. Sign up for the Andrina McCulloch Public Speaking Competition.

GET THINKING GLOBALLY

Prepare for work or studies in a multi-cultural environment by taking QUIC’s Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations.

In the summer, study Medieval Drama and Performance in a medieval castle by enrolling in DRAM271 and MUTH 271 at the BISC in Herstmonceux, UK.

GET READY FOR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

Grappling with program decisions? Go to Majors Night or get some help wondering about career options from Career Services. Make an appointment in February or March to meet with the Dan School Academic Program Manager. Use lab peers, DRAM100 teaching assistants, and course instructors to help navigate the university experience.

Explore different careers of interest by reading books in the Career Services Information Area, such as Great Jobs for Theater Majors. For more information check out Career Cruising or by finding and connecting with alumni on LinkedIn. Get questions answered by a wide array of theatre professionals who regularly visit.

What will I learn?
A degree in Drama can equip you with:

• Technical production and design skills
• Oral and written communication
• Resource and time management to manage multiple long-term projects
• Real world problem solving to focus on effective processes
• Critical thinking for comprehensive analysis of issues and ideas before coming to conclusions
• Creative thinking to connect, synthesize, and transform material to generate new forms and solutions
• Intercultural knowledge and competence to adapt empathetically to unfamiliar ways of being
• Logical reasoning to make judgments based on historical evidence
• Civic engagement to use theatre to make a positive difference in local communities
• Integrative learning to combine practical and theoretical knowledge and experiences

Where can I go?
A degree in Drama can take your career in many directions. Many students choose to continue their academic inquiry with a Master’s. Our students are equipped with a strong foundation for careers in:

• Acting
• Arts administration
• Choreographer
• Development director
• Drama therapy
• Playwriting / screenwriting
• Stage management
• Talent representation
• Theatre production
• TV/Radio broadcasting

Taking time to explore career options, build experience and network can help you have a smooth transition to the world of work after graduation.

CONSIDER A 12-16 MONTH QUIP INTERNSHIP

- 3RD YEAR
- 4TH OR FINAL YEAR

Earn credit for an internship with a professional theatre company (DRAM or MUTH 395).

Consider applying to do a 12-16 month QUIP internship between your third and fourth year.

Apply to become a member of the The Barefoot Players.

Assess what experience you’re lacking and fill in gaps with volunteering, clubs, or internships – check out the Career Services skills workshop for help.

Take a leadership role as part of the DAN School Undergraduate Society (DSUS).

Join groups on LinkedIn reflecting specific careers or topics of interest in Drama or the Drama department alumni Facebook group.

International students interested in staying in Canada can speak with an International Student Advisor.

Take advantage of your last year by broadening your cultural horizons with courses in Theatre and Music of Africa and the Diaspora.

Apply to jobs or future education, or make plans for other adventures. Get help from Career Services with job searching, resumes, interviews, Grad School applications, or other decisions.

Apply in the fall for SSHRC and OGS scholarships if applying to grad school in Ontario.

Why study in Kingston?

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen's has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen's has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen's – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.
