Religion plays a major role in shaping and influencing various cultural, historical, and political movements across the globe. Understanding religious traditions and their impact on diverse modern issues is vital preparation for building a career in the global marketplace. At Queen's, our approach to the study of religion is multicultural, diverse, and interdisciplinary. Our courses look at religion in a variety of interesting ways: specific religious traditions (i.e. New Religious Movements, Islam in the Modern World), themes (i.e. Religion and Sport; Religion, Business and Ethics), and theories.

TOP 5 REASONS to study RELIGION

Acquire Skills. Gain Experience. Go Global.

That is a degree from Queen’s.

queensu.ca/religion
In first year you will have the chance to explore the foundations of Religious Studies along with some electives.

Attend Majors Night in the Winter term to learn more about Plan options.

Start going deeper into the discipline of Religious Studies, while considering a minor and/or certificate such as International Studies. Attend Degree + in the Fall term to learn more about Certificates and Internship options.

Want to make sure your academics are where you want them to be? Visit SASS (Student Academic Support Services) and the Writing Centre for some help.

Join teams or clubs on campus, such as the Queen's International Affairs Association; see the AMS Clubs Directory or the Queen's Get Involved page for more ideas.

Look into summer jobs by talking to the dept. or Career Services about work through SWEP or Work-Study. Consider entrepreneurial opportunities via programs like the Queen's Innovation Connector Summer Initiative (QICSI).

Consider becoming a Departmental Student Council (DSC) representative.

Volunteer on or off campus with different community organizations such as Greenpeace, Ecojustice, Elizabeth Fry Society, Syrian Refugee Aid Groups.

Attend public lectures sponsored by the School of Religion.

Do large career fairs or work with the Queen's or works with the Departmental Student Council (DSC). If interested, get involved with the Queen's Journal or QIAA.

Prepare for work or studies in a multi-cultural environment by taking QUIC's Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations.

Speak to a QUIC advisor to get involved in their programs, events, and training opportunities.

Is an exchange in your future? Start thinking about where you would like to study abroad. Apply in January for a third year exchange through the International Programs Office.

Build your involvement from the start by volunteering, networking, and exploring your interests.

Explore careers of interest by reading books in the Career Services Information Area, such as The Ethical Careers Guide. For more information check out Career Cruising or by finding and connecting with alumni on LinkedIn.

Start focusing on areas of interest. Research education requirements for careers of interest. If needed, prepare to take any required tests (like the LSAT or GMAT) and get help thinking about Grad School from Career Service. Speak to our Graduate Coordinator about graduate studies in Religion.

MAJOR MAP

Why study in Kingston?
For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen’s has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen’s has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen’s – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.
