Acting, directing, music theatre, design, playwriting, theatre technical production, puppets, opera, theatre history, dance. The Dan School of Drama and Music offers a well-rounded program designed to equip resourceful thinkers with the communication, collaborative and leadership skills that will enable them to excel in any field they choose. A key part of Drama at Queen’s is the enormous range and number of opportunities offered by many exciting productions, both on stage and backstage, as directors, writers, designers or producers.

“I loved the well-rounded degree experience I received at Queen’s: playwriting classes, theatre literature classes, directing classes, technical theatre classes, and, most importantly, my acting classes, all of which provided me with a strong base and an understanding of theatre and drama.”

-Amy Ciupak Lalonde, BAH ’98

TOP 4 REASONS to study DRAMA

1. Create new work with a combination of opportunities with music, playwriting, acting, design, directing and all levels of production work, on and off stage.

2. We emphasize a balanced approach in which theory informs practice, and practice informs theory.

3. Drama grads are the top new innovators in Canada for Theatre and the Arts.

4. In addition to Harrison-LeCaine Hall and Theological Hall on the main campus, students take classes, rehearse and perform in the highly acclaimed Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts situated on Lake Ontario.

Ashlie Corcoran: Currently the Artistic Director of Western Canada’s largest theatre company (The Arts Club in Vancouver), Ashlie has directed work across Canada at theatres including the Centaur, Shaw Festival, Canadian Opera Company, Tarragon, and the Belfry as well as serving previously as Artistic Director of both the Thousand Islands Playhouse and Theatre Smash.

Kat Sandler: Actress, Artistic Director (Theatre Brouhaha), and award-winning playwright (2016 Dora for best new play Mustard), Kat’s powerful contemporary voice has been heard in many regional theatres across Canada, including in a stunning simultaneous double bill at Edmonton’s Citadel under the Artistic Direction of Queen’s Drama graduate, Daryl Cloran.

Emma Hunter: Winner of a 2018 Canadian Screen Award for her work in the web series Save Me, Emma is well known for her starring roles in the television series The Beaverton and Mr. D (which also features Drama graduate Suresh John) as well as for her stand up comedy and feature film work.

For 175 years, our community has been more than a collection of bright minds – Queen's has attracted students with an ambitious spirit. Queen's has the highest retention rates, the highest graduation rates, and one of the highest employment rates among recent graduates. We are a research intensive university focused on the undergraduate experience. The BBC has identified Kingston as one of the GREATEST UNIVERSITY TOWNS in the world – and it is often awarded the safest city in Canada. It is a university city at the core; just a quick drive to Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and even New York. A university with more clubs per capita than any other university in Canada, and a city with more restaurants per capita than any other city in North America – you will have the experience of a lifetime at Queen's – and graduate with a degree that is globally recognized among the best.

Get started thinking about the future now – where do you want to go after your degree? Having tentative goals (like careers or grad school) while working through your degree can help with short-term decisions about courses and experiences, but also help you keep motivated for success.

Get the help you need
Queen's provides you with a broad range of support services from your first point of contact with the university through to graduation. At Queen's, you are never alone. We have many offices dedicated to helping you learn, think and do.

Ranging from help with academics and careers, to physical, emotional, or spiritual resources – our welcoming living and learning environment offers the programs and services you need to be successful, both academically and personally. Queen's wants you to succeed! Check out the Student Affairs website for available resources.
