When you study English at Queen’s, you’ll learn to read perceptively, analyze clearly, and above all, communicate effectively. Students will explore the literary canon, including writers such as Shakespeare, Austen, and Brontë, but will also engage with current text forms, such as graphic novels and works by contemporary writers. Queen’s English encourages an eclectic approach to the subject, combining attention to methodology and core knowledge with the flexibility to support individual passions.

To learn to read and think more actively and creatively.
To develop your ability to write effectively and with greater clarity and precision.
To expose yourself to an exciting diversity of literary works written in English.
To build a vocabulary for responding critically and incisively to the written word.
To broaden your aptitudes in expressing complex ideas and formulating persuasive arguments.

“I am so thankful to have studied English at Queen’s University. The department has top-notch professors who both inspire and challenge your thinking. I learned to apply myriad lenses when examining literature, which deepened my understanding and appreciation of the human condition and universally shared experiences.”
-Brett Copeland, BAH ’07

MAJOR BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS)

1ST YEAR
- In first year, you will have the chance to explore the foundations of English along with some electives. See the back page for specific courses to consider.
- Attend Majors Night in the Winter term to learn more about Plan options.
- Prepare for work or studies in a multicultural environment by taking QUC'S Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations.
- Grappling with program decisions? Go to Majors Night or get some help with career options from Career Services.

2ND YEAR
- Delve more deeply into the discipline of English, while considering a minor and/or certificate such as International Studies. Attend Degree – in the Fall term to learn more about Certificate(s) and Internship options.
- Look into summer jobs by talking to Career Services about work through WSEP or Work-Study. Think about applying to positions in student services or the Alma Mater Society. If interested, apply to work at an on-campus library or the Queen's Learning Commons.
- If interested, apply for an Undergraduate Student Summer Research Fellowship (USSRF). Consider applying to do a 12-16 month QUIP internship between your third and fourth year. Consider entrepreneurial opportunities via programs like the Queen's Innovation Connector Summer Initiative (QICSI).
- Explore different careers of interest by reading books in the Career Services Information Area, such as Great Jobs for English Majors. For more information, check out Career Cruising or by finding and connecting with alumni on LinkedIn.

3RD YEAR
- A chance to start grouping courses in areas of interest, or to keep it more general and explore many areas of English. Meet with an Academic Advisor to make sure you are on track and have planned out your courses for next year — for some ideas, see the back page.
- Do targeted networking with alumni working in careers of interest by joining the LinkedIn group Queen's Connects. Check out Career Services networking workshops.
- Build your intercultural competence by getting involved with other cultures or by practicing or improving your language skills.
- Start focusing on areas of interest. Research education requirements for careers of interest. If needed, prepare to take any required tests (like the LSAT or GMAT) and get advice about grad school from Career Services.

4TH OR FINAL YEAR
- Investigate requirements for full-time jobs or other opportunities related to careers of interest. Assess what experience you're lacking and fill in gaps with volunteering, clubs, or internships — check out the Career Services skills workshop for help.
- Consider joining professional associations like the Modern Languages Association (MLA). Join groups on LinkedIn reflecting specific careers or topics of interest in English.
- International students interested in staying in Canada can speak with an International Student Advisor.
- Apply to jobs or future education, or make plans for other adventures. Get help from Career Services with job searching, resumes, interviews, grad school applications, or other decisions.

What will I learn?
- A degree in English can equip you with valuable and versatile skills, such as:
  - Communication skills to present ideas clearly and persuasively, orally and in writing
  - Problem solving to approach a complex topic systematically
  - Textual analysis to understand how texts create meaning and emotional impact
  - Logical thinking to construct an argument for maximum persuasiveness, and to use evidence appropriately
  - Research to gain the knowledge you need to support your argument
  - History of ideas to understand how cultural forms and notions of value change in time
  - Literary theory to explore some of the ways in which literature has been defined, evaluated, and used by different thinkers
  - Cultural study to understand the differences between high and low cultural forms, and their function in society throughout history
  - Resource and time management

Where can I go?
- A degree in English can take your career in many directions. Many students choose to continue their academic inquiry with a Master's. Our students are equipped with a strong foundation for careers in:
  - Advertising
  - Archives
  - Business writing
  - Copywriting
  - Editing
  - Human resources
  - Journalism
  - Public relations
  - Publishing
  - Technical writing
  - Taking time to explore career options, build experience and network can help you have a smooth transition to the world of work after graduation.
