Why GRADUATE STUDIES IN REHABILITATION AND HEALTH LEADERSHIP?

The DSc (RHL) is a 36 month executive-style degree program that allows students to continue working while completing the degree through a blend of onsite sessions and online learning.

The DSc (RHL) equips currently practicing rehabilitation and health professionals with the knowledge and skills they need to confidently pursue career opportunities that require advanced competencies in leadership, program development, applied research and evaluation, advocacy, change management, and knowledge translation.

The program format and curriculum design are firmly rooted in the belief that collaboration, creativity, and the discovery of new knowledge can inspire changes that benefit people affected by or at risk of disability.

The program is open to all professionals, whose current work or future career goals focus on advancing programs, services, and systems that will positively influence the everyday lives of people affected by or at risk of disability.

The cohort-based program has been designed with the working professional in mind. The blended program format includes short, intensive on-campus components (3-7 days) once or twice per year (depending on year of study), coupled with online learning.

Why QUEEN’S?

As the first professional doctorate program at Queen’s University, the DSc (RHL) will train leader scholars who are able to apply theory and use rigorous methodologies to inform decision-making in rehabilitation and health settings across the country and around the globe.

Program STRUCTURE

Students progress through the program on a full-time basis in order to complete requirements in 36 months. Students entering with a Master’s degree will complete a total of 5 required (core) courses (15 credits), two electives (6 credits), a comprehensive exam, and an applied dissertation. Students entering with a Bachelor’s degree will complete one additional core course (Critical Literature Review).

Core COURSES

- Applying Theory to Enable Change
- Applied Research and Evaluation
- Leadership Development
- Communication, Advocacy, and Action
- Preparing Competitive Funding Proposals

Applied DISSERTATION

Students identify a real-world problem in rehabilitation or health setting, and design, implement and evaluate a process, program or system to address this problem.

Program DELIVERY

Learning outcomes will be achieved through several interwoven strategies:
  - An initial 5 day, on-site intensive to orient students to the program in general, launch work on core courses, and meet peers, faculty members, academic advisors, etc.;
  - On-line course work that integrates synchronous and asynchronous components including regular, technology-supported, group-based discussions that are independent of course work to support the development of a community-of-learning and professional network.
