How to use this map

Use the 5 rows of the map to explore possibilities and plan for success in the five overlapping areas of career and academics. The map just offers suggestions – you don’t have to do it all! To make your own custom map, use the My Major Map tool.

Get started thinking about the future now – where do you want to go after your degree? Having tentative goals (like careers or grad school) while working through your degree can help with short-term decisions about courses and experiences, but also help you keep motivated for success.

Sociology

Sociologists investigate how societies work. We study social life at every level, from personal relationships to the functioning of institutions and nations, right up to global interconnections. Our department is widely known for its strengths in criminology and the law, media (informational and surveillance), and social inequalities and social justice. Studying Sociology at Queen’s will help you understand the structures and dynamics of societies and the complex effects they have on human behaviour, public issues, everyday life, politics, and culture.

5 Reasons to study Sociology

1. Engage with cutting-edge research in crime, media, data, and a range of contemporary inequalities.
2. Learn to critically evaluate common sense assumptions about the societies you live in.
   - Gain transferable skills, from critical analysis to problem-solving, to leadership, research, and communication.
3. A flexible plan: take advantage of one of the many opportunities for international exchange.
4. A small, collegial department, offering lively discussion and committed mentorship.

1st Year

Get the Courses You Need

- In first year you will have the chance to explore the foundations of Sociology along with some electives. Attend Majors Night in the Winter term to learn more about Plan options.

Get Relevant Experience

- Join teams or clubs on campus such as Sexual Health and Resource Centre and the Queen's Project on International Development (QPID). Volunteer at nearby hospitals, Kingston charities, or organizations like Queen's Health Outreach (QHO) and Student Wellness Services. See the AMS Clubs Directory or the Queen's Get Involved page for more ideas.

Get Connected with the Community

- Volunteer on or off campus with different community organizations, such as the Levana Gender Advocacy Centre, Half the Sky, Soul Food and Community Literacy Centres.

Get Thinking Globally

- Prepare for work or studies in a multi-cultural environment by taking QUC's Intercultural Competency Certificate, and research possible immigration regulations.

- Speak to a QUIP advisor to get involved in their programs, events, and training opportunities.

Get Ready for Life After Graduation

- Grappling with program decisions? Go to Majors Night or get some help wondering about career options from Career Services.

2nd Year

Get the Courses You Need

- Start going deeper into the discipline of Sociology, while considering a minor and/or certificate such as Law or Media Studies. Attend Degree I in the Fall term to learn more about Certificates and Internship options.

Get Relevant Experience

- Look into summer jobs by talking to the dept. or Career Services about work through SWEP or Work-Study.

Get Connected with the Community

- Get involved with the Departmental Student Council (DSC). Make friends in your Major, collaborate, seek support, or start study groups.

- Join the Sociology Facebook Page. Tutor or assist other students at services like ASUS Peer Tutoring and Queen's Learning Commons.

Get Thinking Globally

- Is an exchange in your future? Start thinking about where you would like to study abroad. Apply in January for a third year exchange through the International Programs Office.

Get Ready for Life After Graduation

- Explore different careers of interest by reading books in the Career Services Information Area, such as Great Jobs for Sociology Majors. For more information check Career Cruising or by finding and connecting with alumni on LinkedIn.

3rd Year

Get the Courses You Need

- A chance to start grouping courses in areas of interest, or to keep it more general and explore many areas of Sociology. Meet with an Academic Advisor to make sure you are on track and have planned out your courses for next year.

Get Relevant Experience

- If interested, apply for an Undergraduate Student Summer Research Fellowship (USSRF). Consider applying to do a 12-16 month QUIP internship between your third and fourth year.

Get Connected with the Community

- Do targeted networking with alumni working in careers of interest by joining the LinkedIn group Queen's Connects. Check out Career Services networking workshops.

- Connect with professors at networking, trivia quiz, and other social events or workshops hosted by the Department Student Council (DSC).

Get Thinking Globally

- Build your intercultural competence by getting involved with other cultures or by practicing or improving your language skills.

Get Ready for Life After Graduation

- Think about working overseas, possibly at organizations like Habitat for Humanity. Volunteer for one of the Community Outreach Committees.

---

4th or Final Year

Get the Courses You Need

- In fourth year you will have the chance to participate in research-based courses that can load to Graduate School or to your future career path. Make sure to finish up all your courses for your major and your optional minor or and certificate(s).

Get Relevant Experience

- Investigate requirements for full-time jobs or other opportunities related to careers of interest.

Get Connected with the Community

- Assess what experience you’re lacking and fill in gaps with volunteering, clubs, or internships. Check out the Career Services skills workshop for help.

Get Thinking Globally

- Consider joining professional associations like the Canadian Sociological Association and the Canadian Association of Social Workers.

Get Ready for Life After Graduation

- Join groups on LinkedIn reflecting specific careers or topics of interest in Sociology. Use the Sociology Facebook page and LinkedIn to see what opportunities your peers have pursued.
